DAY 4 Sunday 24

The Scenic Central Coast

- ★ Start the day again with Mary's famous hearty breakfast. Today we visit Henry Kendall Cottage, Historical Museum of the Pioneers, once the home of poet Henry Kendall. The cottage was built by Peter Fagan, using convict labour, in 1836–1840.
- ★ We drive to President's Hill Lookout and take in panoramic Gosford.
- ★ A delicious BBQ lunch today as we explore The Entrance, with the foreshore shops and Memorial Park.
- ★ We take time to visit the new Ken Duncan Photographic Gallery at Erina. Ken is known internationally as Australia's premier panoramic landscape photographer.
- ★ Tonight we visit the Central Coast Leagues Club for a spectacular "all you can eat" buffet dinner—yum!

DAY 5 Monday 25

Manly Beach and North Head

- ★ We head south after breakfast towards the Hawkesbury River on the F3 Freeway, before crossing Mooney Mooney and Jolls bridges.
- ★ What a way to start the day, morning tea on the beautiful Manly Beach, tree lined with Norfolk Island Pines.
- ★ Scenic drive to North Head passing the Army Barracks and take in spectacular views of our scenic coastline. Cameras are a must this morning to take advantage of Watsons Bay, Eastern Suburbs, South Head and Sydney Harbour.
- ★ Enjoy plenty of free time to discover the famous Manly Corso, Oceanworld or maybe take in a Manly Ferry ride, with a Terranova packed lunch.
- ★ Dinner tonight with a great night of live entertainment with Ross Hamilton's Australiana dinner show.

Manly Ferry on Sydney Harbour

DAY 6 Tuesday 26

Australia Day

- ★ Start today with an Aussie breakfast at Terranova.
- ★ This morning we venture south to Sydney Harbour to board the M.V. Lady Kendall II for a harbour cruise.
- ★ Morning tea and of course a delicious lunch today goes without saying.
- ★ Activities on Sydney Harbour today are unbelievable. The Ferrython, Sam's favourite is one of the highlights.
- ★ There is also the best dressed vessel competition, an awesome Forces Search and Rescue Display and FA-18 Hornet and Hawk 127 flyovers.
- ★ Back to Terranova for our farewell diner in our Valley Views Restaurant.
